A native of Birmingham, Alabama, Pelham graduated from Mountain Brook High School and Auburn University. Pelham is preceded in death by his father, Doctor

Anderson Morrow Morris. He is survived by the joy of his life, his son, Gerald Anderson Morris; mother, Mary Morris Friel; stepfather, William Eugene Friel; sister, Meg Morris Blackney (Shawn); stepbrother, Ryan Coleman Friel (Andrea); and former wife, Molly Norris Morris. He is also survived by his nieces and nephews, Memphis Blackney; Oliver Blackney; Evan Friel; and Laurel Friel.

Pelham lived in the Arab, Alabama community at the time of his death. He was employed by Emmaus Foods in the quality control department.

His family and friends take comfort in his favorite Bible verses: Ephesians 6:10-11, “Finally, be strong in the Lord and His mighty power. Put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes.” And Psalm 16:7-9, “I will praise the Lord, who counsels me, even at night my heart instructs me. I keep my eyes always on the Lord. With Him at my right hand I will not be shaken. Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices; my body also will rest secure.”

A memorial service will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to the Birmingham Humane Society in honor of Otis, Pelham's faithful canine companion.
