

Chris Sakaguchi

On August 20, 2023, the world lost a cherished soul, Chris Sakaguchi, whose presence brought light, laughter, and love to all who knew him. Born on March 3, 1961, Chris's life was a tapestry woven with the threads of family, friendship, banking expertise, and the simple joys of golfing and cooking. As we gather to honor his memory, we celebrate the life of a beloved son, a devoted husband, a nurturing father and a pillar of strength within the Sakaguchi family. Chris's journey was guided by the unwavering love and wisdom of his parents, Edwin and Jane Sakaguchi. Their influence shaped his character, nurturing the values that defined him. A loving husband to Renee Sakaguchi and a supportive and guiding father to Bret Sakaguchi and Sean Sakaguchi, Chris's presence was a source of comfort and inspiration to his family. Chris's career in banking was a testament to his commitment and dedication. He approached his profession with a tireless work ethic, a passion for excellence, and an unwavering integrity that earned him respect and admiration. His contributions resonated within the banking industry and beyond as he touched lives through his dedication to service. While Chris's physical presence may be gone, his spirit lives on in the memories we hold dear. In the shared rounds of golf, the meals prepared with love, and the moments of laughter and companionship, his presence continues to enrich our lives. May he find eternal serenity, and may we carry forward his legacy by embracing his values of dedication, camaraderie, and the joy of pursuing one's passions.

With profound sorrow,
The Sakaguchi Family
