

Cameron DeOndre Ford

Cameron DeOndre Ford 26, born on September 30, 1997 at Shelby Baptist Hospital in Alabaster, Alabama to Cynthia Wingard and Hoyt Ford. Cameron grew up playing baseball, football and basketball side by side with his younger brother Caleb. The “Ford Brothers” were a force to be reckoned with. Cameron was one of the first people to hold his sister Cassidy, who turned into his biggest cheerleader even if they argued and fought all most every day. Cameron loved Caleb and Cassidy more than anything and they love him just as much. As Cameron grew up he became the “life of the party”, the comedian of whatever group he was with and the protector of his family, friends, and anyone that he thought needed it. Cameron was the epitome of “unapologetically himself “! Cameron was a dog lover that dreamed of starting his own dog breeding business with Tank and Nala the stars but God had other plans. God called Cameron home on March 21, 2024 leaving his family absolutely devastated that we could not keep him here with us, but finding comfort in knowing that God has him now and he is watching over us, waiting for us to join him. Cameron will be deeply missed. Cameron leaves behind his “children” Tank and Nala, Mom and Dad, brothers Caleb Ford, Cordara Baker and Skylar Ford, sisters Cassidy Johnson, Tiffany Ford, Jahoya Austin, Aleah Rodriguez and Samantha Fiegel; Grandmother Betty Wingard. Proceeded in death by Grandparents, Hoyt and Marie Ford, Roy Wingard and Great grandmother Jenny Mitchell.
