

Jacob Andrew Spies

Jacob Andrew Spies was just 38. Those times in his life were full of achievements and adventures.

He was born in Hanover, Pennsylvania, one of 4 children of Brienne and Desiree Spies. He loved the arts, both music and painting.

He is a great bass guitarist who played in recording studios in Nashville for several named artists.

He also, around 15 years ago, self-taught himself to paint, 1st on rocks, and later on canvas and did a stint as a pharmacist as well at CVS pharmacy, Inc.

In 2015, he went to San Francisco to attend the Arts Academy University of San Francisco and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Art Education and Appreciation.

His life took him to be a member of the Arts Council of Shelby County, Alabama and a teacher ArtSeed to needy children in San Francisco.

He was a people person. Having a passion to help others.

Between Michael's and Aaron Brothers He was an excellent creator of artwork framing in San Francisco & Birmingham.

He was my son and I'll miss him forever.
