

Ida Bell Cotton (Jackson)

January 18, 2025

After a long battle with cancer, Ida passed away peacefully Saturday at 3pm on January 18, at the UAB Medical Center in Birmingham Alabama surrounded by family. Beloved Ida was born in Montgomery Alabama to Issac “Lollipop” Jackson and Rosa Bell Brooks. She was married to James W. Cotton II, until he passed away. She’s survived by 3 daughters and a son, Katerina, Princess, Christy and James, her son. She was a loving Grandmother to Chris, Corey, Sashira, James, Timothy, Princetim, Serenity, Ahleseah, and Jevon. She’s Great-Grandmother to 7.

She is preceded by her parents Issac “Lollipop” Jackson and Rosa Bell Brooks.

Ida was a beautiful loving soul who loved to cook and make those around her smile. She traveled the world and enjoyed life to the fullest, she motivated and inspired others throughout her years, working in the hospitality industry.

She will be missed by a host of loved ones and friends.
